What is Cub Scouting?

- The mission of the Boy Scouts of America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law.
- Cub Scouting supports your family. Scouting helps parents to develop well-rounded kids with good character who will be better prepared for life as an adult citizen.
- The Cub Scout Motto is “Do Your Best”. In a society where your child is often taught that winning is everything, Cub Scouting teaches them to “DO YOUR BEST”, be helpful to others, and to try to live life as expressed in the Scout Oath and Law.
- Cub Scouting helps young people grow in self-esteem and good character as they learn new skills and conquer new challenges. A Cub Scout den provides your child with a group of kids their own age in which they can earn recognition for their accomplishments. They will also gain a sense of personal achievement for the new skills they learn.
- For many children, Cub Scouting is their first opportunity to experience the fun of the outdoors. Kids want to spend time outdoors doing things and to experience fun weekend camping outings.

How is Cub Scouting Organized?

- Den – Your child and friends in the same grade-level from their school form a “Den.” The kids can progress through Scouting together as a group. Dens are led by a team of adult volunteers – the Den Leader and Assistant Den Leader(s). Den leaders are usually parents of the kids.
- Pack – One or more Dens combine to form the “Pack.” A Pack meeting is usually held once each month. This gathering usually follows a suggested theme. It’s a time for the kids to be recognized for their accomplishments, to perform skits and songs learned in den meetings, and to have fun with the entire family. Parent volunteer Cubmaster leads the pack meeting.
- Pack Committee – The pack committee consists of the parents of the Scouts. Every family is encouraged to participate in some manner. This committee plans events, organizes awards, provides training, and has a budget. The committee supports the Den Leaders and Cubmaster.
- Charter Organization – This is the sponsor of the Pack and often provides a meeting place for the Scouts. Through the Charter Organization, all Pack adult leaders are recruited and approved. The pack operates within the guidelines and polices of that organization and the BSA.

BSA volunteers agree to a criminal background check and must complete Youth Protection available at www.MyScouting.org*

Roles & Responsibilities of Cub Scout Leaders

Pack Committee Chair & Committee Members - Is made up of parent helpers that are committed to helping provide a quality program for the Scouts behind the scenes. The Pack committee helps organize events, keeps track of Unit funding, tracks advancement, sets up the yearly calendar, etc.

Cubmaster - Everything the Cubmaster does is aimed at helping the individual Scout. Securing strong leaders, planning den and pack activities, advising other leaders and adult family members.

Cub Scout Den Leaders - Are at least 21 years old, completes youth protection training, subscribes to the Declaration of Religious Principle and agrees to abide by the Scout Oath or Promise and the Scout Law. Den Leaders plan and run weekly Den meetings for the individual grade they are assigned. It is the Den Leaders job to ensure that the meetings are fun and exciting while advancing the Scouts toward earning their rank. Dens with Girls must have one Female Den Leader.

Meetings and Outings

Scouting is a year-round program! We want both you and your child to be as involved as you can, but don't worry about missing a meeting or two. You will have an opportunity to catch up later. Here is the standard meeting schedule.

- Den – Your child's small group or "Den" will meet 2 or 3 times each month during the school year. 1 meeting might be a field trip. Meetings can take place at a parent's home, church, school, park, or other safe location. Leaders can use lesson plans to complete 7 core adventures to earn rank.
- Pack – All of the small groups will meet together as a larger "Pack" once each month. Pack meetings are fun and the entire family is invited.
- Outings – Your Den and Pack will work together to plan at least one type of outdoor activity each month.

Note: The first few meetings can often seem unorganized or "crazy" until both the volunteers and Scouts get into a routine. Encourage your child and enjoy the time learning together.

Upcoming Activities and Camping

- Good Turn – This is a service project to benefit the community. One good turn that many Dens & Packs participate in is "Scouting for Food," a canned-food drive to benefit local food pantries. Scouting for Food is conducted in February.
- Pack Camping – Each fall and spring many Districts have a camp-out so existing members and new families can get to know each other. There are fun activities for the Scouts and campfires in the evening. Additional information will be provided by your Pack leader.
- Cub Scout Fall Family Camp – This is a one-night campout at Camp Mack Morris for Cub Scouts and their families in October. Some of the activities include: Archery, BB guns, games, hayrides, spooky house, and crafts. See "Family Camp" flyer or go to wtacbsa.org.
- Pinewood Derby – Parent and Scout work together to build a gravity-powered miniature race car from a special kit. Most Packs conduct derby races annually in early spring.
- Blue and Gold Banquet – This is a birthday party for your Cub Scout Pack, usually held in February to correspond with the Anniversary of Scouting. Most often, it is a seated dinner, but sometimes it is a potluck supper. A special program or entertainment is customary.
- Summer Day Camp – This exciting and affordable 5-day program, conducted under certified leadership, is held in a central location during day or twilight hours. This activity may include archery & BB ranges, science projects, special crafts, games, sports, songs and skits.
- And much more: Generals Baseball Camp-out, Spring Family Camp, Webelos Adventure Camp, Fishing Derby, etc.

Awards and Advancement

Cub Scouts provides a place for kids to learn the importance of setting a goal and working to achieve that goal. Throughout the year, each Scout will be working on their “Rank Badge”. Requirements for this rank can be found in their grade specific handbook.

In addition to their rank, there are other awards such as Adventure belt loops, Outdoor Activity, Outdoor Ethics, World Conservation, Pack Summertime, STEM/Nova (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math), Cyber Chip online safety, and your faith’s Duty to God (praypub.org). These are fun and educational awards Scouts will earn for participating in activities with their Scout group and family.

Earn Your First Rank - Bobcat!

The first badge that every Scout gets to earn, regardless of which age den they join, is the Bobcat Badge. These are the requirements:

1. Learn and say the Scout Oath, with help if needed.

Scout Oath

The Role of the Cub Scout Parent

Every parent plays a very important role with your Scout. You will be working with your Scout on their achievements, attend a camp outing together, and simply have fun with your family! Scouting would not be possible without the parents or guardians involvement.

You will be asked to serve as a parent helper with the Cub Scout Pack where your child is a member. All Scout leaders are volunteers. Whatever time you are able to invest in Scouting – the result is phenomenal! Kids will not only have fun because of your help; they will also grow physically, mentally and develop good relationships with other people.

Parent Involvement is the Secret to Success!

Take a moment to look over these roles. Please mark 3 choices where you would like to help!
